RESOLUTION RENAMING THE ELECTRICAL AND COMPUTER ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT AT NEWARK COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING TO THE HELEN AND JOHN C. HARTMANN DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICAL AND COMPUTER ENGINEERING

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees and the Administration of New Jersey Institute of Technology elect to honor its most outstanding friends and supporters by the naming of university facilities in their memory;

WHEREAS, John C. Hartmann, a 1951 graduate of Newark College of Engineering, was an electrical engineer for many years at RCA in Princeton, NJ;

WHEREAS, John and his wife, Helen, credited his NCE education as a critical factor in his successful career;

WHEREAS, the Hartmanns bequeathed an endowment to the university, allowing the establishment of John C. Hartmann Endowed Scholarship; and

WHEREAS, according to their wishes, the gift supports undergraduate students at NCE who demonstrate a financial need.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Electrical and Computer Engineering Department at Newark College of Engineering will be renamed to the Helen and John C. Hartmann Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering.
