

Master's students in good academic standing who are registered in 701B (3 credits of Master's Thesis) can be certified full time with less than 9 credits if they have successfully completed, or are completing in the current semester, all required coursework in the program.