

Office of Global Initiatives REDUCED COURSE LOAD REQUEST FORM

Any international student requesting an exception to full-time enrollment for academic reasons, must submit this form to OGI and receive approval prior to dropping any courses (12 credits for undergraduate students and 9 credits for graduate students). A student who drops below a full course of study without the prior approval of the DSO will be considered out of status.

ACADEMIC REASONS (to be filled out by the academic adviser)

The student listed above is requesting a reduced course load. As per Code of Federal Regulations 214.2(f)(6)(iii)(A) and 214.2.(f)(6)(iii)(B) the student may qualify for enrolling less than full-time based on academic difficulties or medical reasons. Select the reason for a reduced course load:

ACADEMIC REASON (academic adviser signature is required; select the academic reason)

- □ Initial difficulty with the English language (first semester only)
- □ Initial difficulty with reading requirements (first semester only)
- □ Unfamiliarity with U.S. teaching methods (first semester only)
- □ Improper course level placement (anytime during the program).

Adviser must attach a letter explaining the reasons that justify the exemption. Please provide as much detail as possible and note that poor performance in class, failure to pass a class or failure to attempt assigned readings do NOT constitute a valid reason for a reduced course load. (Students cannot be enrolled in only online classes).
