

..... Envisioning the Future .....

INCREASE REVENUE FROM PRIVATE SOURCES

HAVING A BALL WITH THE UNDER-21 CLUB

The newly-established Under 21 Club organizes events for alumni who have graduated within the past 20 years. In June, young alumni enjoyed a baseball outing at the Bears-Eagles Riverfront Stadium in Newark where NJIT's baseball team plays its home games.

RAYMOND MEETS THE PRESIDENT

The Tampa Bay Devil Rays mascot, Raymond, was first in line to "meet the president" at a Florida alumni event hosted by Vincent Naimoli '62, managing general partner and CEO of the Devil Rays. Alumni got to see President Altenkirch throw out the first ball at a spring training game between the Devil Rays and the Pittsburg Pirates.

CLASS OF '54 HONORED AT COMMENCEMENT

Members of the class of 1954, who will be celebrating their 50th reunion in October, were invited to attend NJIT's commencement exercises held May 26 at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center as honored guests of the Board of Trustees. Representing their class in the academic procession were Morris L. Tarabar, Irving Bauman, and Richard Ernst Huber.

SOCCER STARS GATHER IN FLORIDA

Former NJIT soccer stars and their families took a winter vacation together at an Alumni Soccer Reunion held in February in Miami. The three-day event, hosted by Alfonso Cardenas, Manuel Garrido and Alvaro Piedrahita, included a dinner-reception, a picnic and soccer game, and a golf outing.

CLASS OF '33 CELEBRATES THEIR 70TH REUNION

Members of the class of 1933 – including Fred Coppersmith and his wife, Josephine -- have continuously maintained the friendships that began in 1929 when they first arrived on the campus of Newark College of Engineering. To mark their 70th anniversary, the NJIT administration helped the class put together a “virtual reunion.” University officials – Robert A. Altenkirch, president of NJIT; Charles R. Dees Jr., vice president for university advancement; Pat Breslin, executive director of the Highlander Athletic Fund; Dottie David-Wilson, acting director of alumni relations; and Khatmeh Osseiran-Hanna, director of planned giving and development – visited class members at their homes, and these interviews became the basis for a printed yearbook and a web site dedicated to the “33rd Engineers.” Felix the Pooch sat in on the Coppersmiths’ interview