Presenter’s Biography:

Hamel Vyas received a B.A. in political science (with honors) from York University, Toronto, and her J.D. from Widener University School of Law. Ms. Vyas began her immigration law career in Buffalo, and is admitted to the New York State Bar and United States Supreme Court. She is currently the Associate Dean for International Personnel, HR Regulatory and Compliance, at Mount Sinai Health System. Ms. Vyas is a passionate and unwavering advocate for immigrant rights. She served as immigration co-chair for the South Asian Bar Association, North America, and also served on the Board of Directors of the South Asian Bar Association of New York (SABANY), as well as Vice President; she also served on the AILA Board of Governors during her term as chair of the Young Lawyers Division (YLD). She has recently been appointed by the Jersey City Mayor’s office to the Immigrant Affairs Commission of Jersey City. Ms. Vyas has spoken and written on various immigration topics and is the recipient of the inaugural 2014 Pro Bono Attorney of the Year from SABANY Pro Bono Clearinghouse for outstanding commitment to pro bono legal service for the South Asian community.
