

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY
OFFICE OF THE SQUADRON COMMANDER
LT COL RALPH S. VAN BRUNT SQUADRON
AFROTC DETACHMENT 490 (AETC) NEW JERSEY
INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY 323 MLK
BOULEVARD, NEWARK, NJ 07102

13 January 2012

MEMORANDUM FOR WEBSITE VISITORS

FROM: SQUADRON COMMANDER

SUBJECT: Lt Col Ralph S. Van Brunt Squadron

1. First and foremost, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your shown interest in the Lt Col Ralph S. Van Brunt Squadron and Arnold Air Society.
2. Over the years, the Van Brunt squadron has displayed its' commitment to the mission of the Arnold Air Society and has taken the development of future US Air Force officers to the next level. The Lt Col Ralph S. Van Brunt Squadron prides itself in our rich history, high standards, and our impact at both our detachment and within our communities.
3. Going into the Spring 2012 semester, the Van Brunt Squadron is ready to surpass expectations. We are committed to furthering our legacy and impacting the lives of those who are less privileged by giving back to our communities as much as we can, while aiming to increase military awareness within our communities.
4. Our goal is to lead by example within the detachment wing and serve as role models to guide and motivate new cadets along their path in becoming US Air Force Officers.
5. If you have any questions pertaining to the squadron or Arnold Air Society in general, please contact me at vanbrunt.cc@gmail.com or call me at 973.715.8067.

//SIGNED//
MARIANA I. TAMARIZ, C/MAJ, AAS
COMMANDER
Lt Col Ralph S. Van Brunt Squadron