한양대학교에서 만나요!
Hanyang University is the successor of DongA Politechnic Institute, which was established in 1939 as the first engineering college in Korea. Today, Hanyang is home to more than 32,000 students in 24 colleges and 21 graduate schools. To continue its momentum of progress, Hanyang University has been striving to promote internationalization and consequently, over 1,000 courses instructed in English by about 200 foreign professors are offered every semester. Efforts such as these have allowed Hanyang to recruit more than 6,000 international students in total, while boosting relations with about 700 universities worldwide.
Hanyang University is conveniently located near the heart of the capital, Seoul. Seoul campus sits atop a small hill that commands a great view of the surrounding area. The campus is situated along the nearby ChongRyang Stream and close to Seoul Forest park. Best of all, Hanyang University Subway Station, circular Line 2, lies conveniently within the campus.

I learned so much more about the Korean culture and other cultures as well. HISS really brings you out of your shell and Hanyang is so great at facilitating activities and classes that get you involved with local students and other international students. Hanyang International Summer Program does an incredible job at providing such a fun, and culture packed experience. I cannot recommend it enough!

Chelsey Dues, Ohio Northen University

Who knew one month could be so short, yet could also be so experienced to the fullest?! Four weeks in Seoul didn’t seem like much at first, but somehow, HISS managed to pack in a wide variety of field trips and events alongside enriching and engaging classes, and nurtured many new friendships with students from all over the world. With the diversity of HISS’ participants, it was a truly international and multicultural exchange experience! It turned out to be one of the most exciting and memorable summers of my life.
