UNIVERSITY SENATE BY-LAWS

New Jersey Institute of Technology
REVISED September 30, 2013
Approved February 6, 2014
Revised as approved by BoT September 17, 2015

I. INTRODUCTION
These bylaws are formulated in accordance with Section 5 of the Constitution of the University Senate.

II. MEMBERSHIP

A. Selection of Members
Each constituent body shall follow its own procedures for selecting, recalling, and replacing its University Senate representative(s).

B. Term of Office
1. Faculty, Lecturers and Educators, Administrators, Staff, Alumni, Deans, Vice Presidents
The term of office shall be three years, beginning on September 1 and ending on August 31.
2. Students
The term of office shall be one year, beginning on May 1 and ending on April 30.
3. President and the Vice President of the Faculty Senate, Associate Provost for Graduate Studies, Associate Provost for Academic Affairs, and the Vice President of Academic Support and Student Affairs
The term of office shall be the duration of their incumbency.
4. Staggered Terms
Initial terms of office shall be arranged by the Provost to achieve a staggered effect.

C. Special Circumstances
1. Temporary Cessation of Term and Temporary Replacements
A voting member of the University Senate who is temporarily unable to serve shall be replaced by another eligible member from the same stakeholder group, appointed by the head of the stakeholder group. The replacement representative shall be appointed to serve for a designated period, not to exceed one year. If time remains in the three-year term of the original representative after the replacement period has ended, the original representative shall finish the remainder of the term.
2. Premature End of Term and Permanent Replacements
If a University Senate member permanently vacates his or her position as a University Senate representative before the end of the term, the affected stakeholder group shall select a replacement for the remaining portion of the term as quickly as possible.

D. Notification of Representatives
By April 30, stakeholder groups with one or more open seats in the University Senate shall notify the University Senate President of the name(s) of their representative(s).
E. Election of Executive Committee Members

1. Election Procedure

   Pursuant to Section 4 of the Constitution of the University Senate, the voting members of the University Senate shall, at their first meeting of the fall semester, elect a Vice President and an Executive Secretary from among their number. At this meeting the voting members shall also elect from among their number the remaining three members of the Executive Committee, to include one faculty member, one administrator, and one member from any one of the following stakeholder groups: the Staff Council, the Lecturers and Educators Congress, the Student Senate, the Graduate Student Association, and the Alumni Association.

2. Nominations

   Nominations, including self-nomination, shall be made from the floor during the meeting. Nominations for the Executive Committee shall require a second.

3. Voting

   The President of the University Senate shall conduct a closed ballot election whenever there is more than one candidate for a position. When there is only one candidate for a position, the election shall be by acclamation.

4. Terms of Office

   Elected members of the Executive Committee shall serve one-year terms, from the time of their election until the next election of the Executive Committee the following fall.

F. Duties of Voting Members

All Voting Members of the University Senate are expected to perform the following duties:

1. Attend all meetings of the University Senate and participate fully and knowledgeably in its deliberations.
2. Keep their stakeholder group informed of University Senate business and decisions.
3. Solicit the opinions of other members of their stakeholder group about University Senate business.
4. Represent the interests of the university as a whole, as well as the interests of their own stakeholder group.

G. Duties of the President, Vice President and Executive Committee of the University Senate

In performing their duties, the President and Vice President shall at all times maintain open channels of communication with the members of the University Senate and strive to represent their will.

   (b) Interact with the President of the university or Board of Trustees as opportunities arise.
   (c) Assist the President and Vice President of the University Senate with the management of the University Senate.

III. MEETINGS OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE

A. Regular Meetings
The University Senate shall meet regularly, but not less than twice each semester during the Academic Year. Its Executive Committee and its other committees shall meet as frequently as necessary, subject to the direction of the full University Senate.

B. Special Meetings
Special meetings shall be held (1) by the decision of the President of the university or (2) upon request by at least one-third of the voting members.

C. Quorum
The quorum at meetings of the University Senate shall be a majority of its voting membership.

D. Rules of Order at University Senate Meetings
1. Unless otherwise specified in the Constitution of the University Senate or this document, meetings of the University Senate and its committees shall be conducted according to the rules of procedure in the most recent edition of Roberts’ Rules of Order Newly Revised.
2. Decisions at University Senate meetings are determined by a majority of votes cast on motions. Voting members may vote for or against a motion, or they may register an abstention. However, abstentions are not considered “votes cast.”
E. Open and Closed Meetings of the University Senate

1. Open Meetings of the University Senate
   As stated in Section 6.2.1 of the Constitution of the University Senate: “unless otherwise specified, all meetings of the University Senate shall be open to all members of the university.”

2. Closed Meetings of the University Senate
   As stated in Section 6.2.2 of the Constitution of the University Senate, a meeting of the University Senate may be closed in “special circumstances” defined as matters that concern specific personnel, individual privacy, student records, or any other matters deemed confidential by law.

   (a) A meeting may be declared to be closed in one of two ways: (1) by announcement of the President of the University Senate, or (2) by majority of the votes cast by the voting members.

   (b) Meetings or parts of meetings that are closed shall be restricted to the voting and non-voting members of the University Senate.

   (c) Besides the information provided in the minutes, the voting and non-voting members of the University Senate shall be aware that business conducted in closed meetings of the University Senate is confidential.

F. Minutes
   The University Senate shall publish minutes of its deliberations. The minutes shall be kept by the Executive Secretary of the University Senate and shall record votes taken and decisions made. Minutes shall be distributed to the University community in at least two formats including the university website, and in any other outlets it deems effective.

IV. COMMITTEES

A. Reporting Requirements
   Standing committees shall report to the University Senate regularly but not less frequently than twice in any academic year.

B. Other Committees
   1. Other committees established by the University Senate from time to time for work during the academic year will report back to the University Senate not less frequently than every other meeting, and shall keep the Executive Committee apprised of their progress monthly.
   2. Unless otherwise specified, the Chairperson of each committee shall be a voting member of the University Senate, elected by the voting members of the committee at its first meeting of the academic year.

C. Election and Bylaw/Constitutional Review Committees
