The National Institute for the Study of Transfer Students (NISTS) organizes National Transfer Student Week (NTSW) to celebrate transfer students and the professionals who support them on their journey.

MORE THAN 500 STUDENTS PARTICIPATED*

*Duplicated - counts a student one time for every campus event attended

MORE THAN 500 STUDENTS PARTICIPATED*

Data from 90 out of 150 survey completers who reported participating in at least one NTSW 2021 event

TRANSFER STUDENT POST-EVENT SURVEY FEEDBACK

Increased Awareness of Resources & Services

Increased Connection to NJIT and Peers

As a Result of Attending NTSW 2021:

What Worked:
- ‘Diversity of events and communication’
- ‘It was [a] great experience for me where I met lots of different peers and try to communicate with them’
- ‘Everything was very organized which was nice’
- ‘The staff and organising committee was very cordial to the attendees.’
- ‘The giveaways’
- ‘It was easy for me to know what was going on by the way the events were organized. The posters, flyers, emails, and notifications on social media made it easy for me to plan out which events I attended, the time and place each event, and who was showing up to the events.’
