

Since its initial performance in 1996 at the Segerstrom Center for the Arts in Costa Mesa, California, Classical Mystery Tour has become one of the world’s most sought-after live attractions. The group has been performing consistently for over 20 years, both as a band and with more than 100 orchestras throughout the U.S. and across the globe. Highlights include playing to packed houses at the Sydney Opera House and performing with America’s most prestigious orchestras: The Cleveland Orchestra, The Boston Pops, The Philadelphia Orchestra and The San Francisco Symphony, among many others.

The four musicians in Classical Mystery Tour look and sound just like The Beatles, but their performance is more than just a rock concert. The show presents more than two dozen Beatles tunes, transcribed note-for-note and performed exactly as they were originally recorded. Many Beatles fans never had the opportunity to experience a live Beatles show; Classical Mystery Tour offers that live experience from the comfort of an intimate venue.

The Los Angeles Times called Classical Mystery Tour “more than just an incredible simulation ... the crowd stood and bellowed for more.”
