The Educational Opportunity Program Summer Academic Enrichment Program provides an opportunity for all students to maximize their potential. To accomplish this goal, students must adhere to the rules and regulations.

1. Do not be late or absent from classes, homework sessions, and appointments.
2. Clear your room of playful pets or noisy siblings.
3. Make sure your room does not have any offensive posters or pictures on the walls.
4. Sit in an area where you can work comfortable.
5. Turn off the TV and radio and cell phone (No multitasking during class!)
6. Keep your microphone muted until you are called on.
7. Know how to raise your “virtual hand” and wait until you are called on.
8. Always address the Professor, Teaching Assistant, Tutors and fellow EOP classmates in a respectful manner, even when disagreeing.
9. Reread your messages for friendliness and respect before sending.
10. No abbreviations like, “LOL”. Spell words out to avoid confusion and misunderstanding
11. Avoid using all uppercase letters; this is often considered shouting.
12. Preview each lesson a day before class so you understand what will be covered during class
13. Takes notes while you are previewing the lesson. (It will help jog your memory during class
14. Focus on the classroom conversation and actives.
15. Do Not have sideline chants with EOP classmates while the Professor is teaching.
16. Ask relevant questions to clarify the material covered or assignments given.
17. Please refrain from eating while on your virtual platform.
18. A bottle of water or any beverage is permissible.
