

Standing Orders

When entering a standing order requisition (in particular for Office and Computer supplies) it is important to include the following on your purchase requisition to insure that the correct merchandise is received

- Authorized User Names, email address, contact phone number (entered in the “Document Text” print box)
- Termination date for the Standing Order
- Description of items to be purchased