This document describes a hierarchy for coding various levels of the NJIT and NJII administrative structure. The hierarchy currently includes the following four levels:

Executive Level/Division/Subdivision/Department

Definitions of each Level:

Executive Level – The ten broad areas of responsibility at the university include:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Executive Level</th>
<th>Division Head</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>EL1 President’s Area</td>
<td>Lim, T.</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>Ancis, J.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Division - A collection of departments within the university sharing a broad general purpose. The department heads normally report to a division head that is an individual at the Dean or Assistant/Associate Vice President Level.

Subdivision - Usually designated at the Asst. / Assoc. VP or Executive Director level which reports to a division head, but manages the activities of multiple departments.

Department - A well-defined unit of activity or activities within the university with a common purpose supervised by a single individual (department head). Department heads are usually at the level of Director or Chairperson or above.
