Residence Life Office

Dear resident:

Welcome to the NJIT community! The Office of Residence Life is pleased that you have chosen to live on campus, and look forward to helping make your stay a great experience. To ensure a smooth check-in, please review the information below before you arrive to campus.

Welcome home, Highlanders!

For a comprehensive move-in guide, including the dates and times for check-in, suggested items to bring, how to purchase a laundry card, MicroFridge rentals, renters insurance, and parking, please visit our website. Select the Fall 2018 Move-In tab on the main page.

Visit MyHousing for information on your room assignment, roommate/suitemate names and email information. You will need to login to the system with your UCID and password. You will view your housing assignment from the MyHousing Overview page. MyHousing will list all student's check-in date as 8/26/2018, please however refer to the Residence Life website for your official check-in time as they differ by community and class-year.

If you plan to cancel your housing contract, please contact our office in writing to reslife@njit.edu. Please refer to the terms and conditions of the housing application and contract posted on our website for detailed information on the cancellation policy and fees.

Need to change your meal plan? Students are allowed to change their meal plan one time until 9/14/18. Freshman and sophomore level students (by credit hours) are required to have a meal plan and can select from plans A-E. To view what you selected on your housing application and contract login to MyHousing. To change your meal plan complete the online form.

Questions/Concerns? Contact our office at (973) 596-3039 or via email to reslife@njit.edu.
