NJIT TAB and USEPA Region 3 Conduct Grant Writing Workshop

NJIT TAB collaborated with EPA Region 3 in the development and delivery of Grant Writing Workshop: What You Need to Know About EPA Brownfield Grants – Tips and Tricks for Success. The workshop was held on October 28, 2016, in Lancaster, PA as part of the PA Brownfields Conference. The Workshop was an expert's guide for preparing successful assessment and cleanup grant proposals. The workshop included: an overview of the NJIT TAB Program; an overview of the EPA grant application processes; presentation of a grant proposal to-do list; presentation of "Tips and Tricks" for each grant section (including common pitfalls and strategies for to address those pitfalls); and steps that potential applicants could presently be undertaking to position themselves for success. The workshop was attended by approximately 30 people representing communities from across Pennsylvania.
